

A Centenary Celebration of the First Female Fellows of the London Geological Society

Call for papers

Theme: historical accounts of pioneering women geologists

A two-day conference to be held at:

The Geological Society, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London

21st - 22nd May 2019

Call for Expressions of Interest and Abstracts

The conference welcomes proposals for research papers or poster presentations on the historical contribution of women in geology. It is hoped that the presentations will build on and expand the work achieved at an exploratory conference in 2005 “The Role of Women in the History of Geology”. Any aspects on this subject are acceptable and talks should be up to 30 mins.

It is intended to hold a celebration conference dinner and to publish the proceedings.

Please send expressions of interest, abstracts and enquiries to Professor Cynthia Burek or further information from the conveners. We welcome abstracts (200 words) until 31st January 2019.

Conveners: Prof. Cynthia Burek c.burek@chester.ac.uk
